Tena koutou katoa. A kia noho te ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome to Charlotte (Charlie) Stewart and her parents, Angus and Lisa. Charlie joined us this week. We hope you will all enjoy being part of the school community.

In this week's Gospel reading, we hear Jesus asking, 'What do you want me to do for you?' Just like the blind man, I think Jesus is asking us that same question and awaiting our answer.

It could be very useful to meditate on what we REALLY want Jesus to do for us and why that is the priority in our life right now.

Just a reminder that after Labour Weekend, FULL and correct summer uniform is required.

See you after Labour Weekend, on Tuesday. Have a great break and keep safe if you are travelling.

Go the All Blacks!

God Bless,

Lita Smith - Principal

Class Mass - Rooms 4 and 7

There was a great turn out from the Parish and school community. The Mass celebrated God's creation which links in with the Inquiry 'big theme'. Readings were proclaimed and prayers were written by the children. After Communion, there was a moving liturgical dance. Everyone was invited to morning tea in the 4 Square.

We picked vegetables from our school garden then we made some crepes with the vegetables. They were very healthy. It tasted like apples. Some people thought it was disgusting but other people thought it was delicious. It was exciting and amazing.
